DETAILED ACTION

Amendment

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the amendment filed 17 February 2006.

Examiner's Amendment

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Carl Wischusen on 28 April 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

Claims 13 and 20-21 have been amended as follows and replace the previously filed claims. The claims are shown in their entirety and are marked up to show the changes.

13. (Currently Amended) A method according to claim 11, further including the step of pressing an outline of a transaction device into the transporter, the outline pressed substantially through the transporter to enable the transaction device to remain in physical communication with the transporter, the transaction device removable from the transporter, the outline of the transaction device being pressed inside the transporter outer perimeter and outside the RFID module outline, wherein a portion of the removal transaction device intersects the ~~[[magnetic]]~~ magnetic stripe.

Art Unit: 2876

20. (Currently Amended) A method for providing a Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) transaction device, comprising:

providing a transaction device transporter, including [[a RFID module;]] an RFID module contained within the transaction device transporter, the RFID module being operable to conduct a RFID transaction using RFID transmission;

pressing a transaction device outline on the transporter, the pressing of the transaction device outline being done circumspect the RFID [[module; and]] module, wherein the transaction device outline lies substantially completely within a perimeter of the transaction device transporter, and said pressing is done with sufficient pressure to perforate substantially through the transporter so that the RFID module and the transporter may remain in physical communication; and providing the transporter, transaction device, and RFID module to a user for the removal of the RFID transaction device including the module from said transporter in accordance with the transaction device outline.

21. (Currently Amended) A Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) transaction system comprising:

RFID [[operable]] transaction module operable to conduct a RFID transaction using RFID transmission;

a RFID operable transaction device for supporting the module within the transaction device, the RFID module removable from the transaction device for independent [[operation.]] operation, wherein the RFID transaction module is formed by pressing a transaction device outline on transaction device transporter, the pressing of the transaction device outline being done circumspect the RFID module, wherein the transaction device outline lies substantially completely within a perimeter of the transaction device transporter, and said pressing is done with sufficient pressure to perforate substantially through the transporter so that the RFID module and the transporter may remain in physical communication.

Art Unit: 2876

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-29 are allowed.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The best prior art of record fails to teach the specific placement of the RFID module outlines into the sheet (i.e. that the outline is pressed so as to lie substantially completely within a transaction device transporter outside perimeter). Hence the best prior art of record fails to teach the invention as set forth in claims 1-29 and the examiner can find no teaching of the specific method for providing a radio frequency identification transaction device, nor reasons within the cited prior art or on her own to combine the elements of these references other than the applicant's own reasoning to fully encompass the current pending claims. In addition, see applicant's reasoning in amendment/response filed 17 February 2006.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
